Makar Sankranti also known as Maghi, marks the first day of Sun's transit from Dhanus (Sagittarius) into Makara (Capricorn) rashi/zodiac sign, marking Sun's journey into the northern hemisphere, a period which is considered to be highly auspicious.

The festival of Makar Sankranti is dedicated to Lord Surya (Sun) Bhagawan, who is thought of as the source of light and warmth. He has the power to control seasons and enable or withhold the ripening of crops.
